Coaches, your participation during this event is very important. The staffs and regions of Area 4U offer this yearly event at no additional cost to our parents and players. This event has been designed to offer a tournament type of environment without the stress associated in an effort to provide a greater soccer experience in a fun and safe environment for our children.

Rob Winters
Section 4 Director

General

Play will be governed by FIFA Laws of the Game. AYSO National Rules and Regulations, Area 4U Interregional Guidelines and these specific rules. The area 4U tournament is considered as one additional event scheduled over several days, designed to allow our teams and players a fun and exciting weekend.

Team and Player Eligibility

Only regular season AYSO teams created during fall of the current season are eligible for this tournament. Combined, elite, or select teams are not permitted. NO GUEST PLAYERS.

All players must be registered as reflected by your AYSO region / roster on or before April 1 in order to be eligible for this event.

Coaches Training

All head coaches must have AYSO Age Specific training. Coaches and assistant coaches must take the AYSO Safe Haven course. Coaches must also have medical release forms for all of their players at all games and provide same if asked to do so by the referee for any game or by a tournament committee member for any game.

Conduct of Players, Coaches, and Spectators

Good sportsmanship and clean competition shall be encouraged by coaches. Coaches, Parents, and Players shall conduct themselves in a manner becoming a member of the American Youth Soccer Organization. Coaches are responsible for controlling the conduct and sideline behavior of the players, parents and assistant coaches at the tournament. There is to be no coaching from the spectators.

Substitutions and Game Times

Substitutions will be made only per AYSO National Rules and Area 4U guidelines. All U12 players shall sit once prior to any team player sitting twice in any given match. Game times will be:

30 minute halves for Under 19
35 minute halves for Under 14
30 minute halves for Under 12

Weather

In case of inclement weather or unplayable field conditions, the Tournament Committee may take any of the following actions: Delay play for a period of time, reduce game times to catch up the schedule, reschedule games, cancel or reschedule the tournament. Awards may not be awarded if play is not completed in any age group. Team deposits will be returned if event gets cancelled.

Team Volunteer

All teams which enter this tournament must provide one adult to work as a volunteer during this event. AYSO is an all volunteer organization and will need assistance in the operations of this event.
